

Welcome Heid Yamaha Music Summer Camp Musician: Singer & Guitarist, Robyn Metko

A fourth generation musician, Robyn Marie Metko began entertaining her family and their friends as a toddler. Her informal music education commenced at an early age as she watched her father, Dick Metko, and his colleagues perform and promote their many music projects.

Inspired by her cousin who played guitar, Robyn Marie started her formal music education at age six with private guitar lessons. Her teen years included the discovery of hard rock and heavy styles of underground music, slightly annoying her parents while enhancing their own broad musical tastes. Robyn would later add voice, flute, piano and accordion to her repertoire of instruments.

Coupled with her interest in a myriad of contemporary performance styles, Robyn shares her experience and knowledge of the music industry with her students and associates. She brings the same dedication and enthusiasm for performance to her private lessons, classes and clinics. Robyn divides her time between private music education, charity work, recording projects and entertainment promotions.
