-March 2019-

Green Bay Webster Children's Center for Integrated Arts

Lead by Kevin Flogel, Ashley Zipperer,
Darlene Bentz and Susan Romey

Named School of the Month for March, the Green Bay Webster Children's Center for Integrated Arts earned such recognition for not only introducing their students to the arts as early as the 2nd grade, but maintaining a solid musical curriculum throughout their time at the school. Each family has equal access to practice and study music.

"I believe music education holds incredible benefits for children. The following come to mind immediately: Teamwork, developing self discipline and positive risk taking, builds self confidence, strong correlation to academic achievement in math and science, supports development of time management, helps develop both hemispheres of the brain, and much more..." said Principal Nancy Schultz.

Heid Music's School of the Month program aims to celebrate the great achievements of local school music programs. We greatly appreciate their community impact and want to help celebrate all that they do.
