

STUDENT FEATURE

Student: Hayden
Teacher: Chad Ellis
Location: Oshkosh

Hayden has been taking guitar lessons since September 2018. In a few months he has a firm foundation in music basics. This is his first time playing a musical instrument and he has been excelling at it. He has been working on music reading, rhythm development and other musical topics that will set him up on a solid ground as he continues to grow. Hayden loves to practice and that has really contributed to his growth. His goal is to play some of his favorite music.

NOTEWORTHY NEWS

Les & Dar Stumpf Youth Arts Scholarship

The Les and Dar Stumpf Youth Arts Scholarship was established to provide, on the basis of need, discretionary financial assistance to children in kindergarten through high school to support participation in an art discipline (i.e. music, drama, dance, visual arts).

Students entering kindergarten through 12th grade, who reside in one of the following school districts are eligible: Appleton, Hortonville, Kaukauna, Kimberly, Little Chute, Menasha or Neenah. Applicants must have a financial need to be considered.

Applications are due April 1 and can be found at CFFoxValley.org/Scholarships.
